JOHANNES MÜLLER STOSCH, MUSIC DIRECTOR

JOHANNES MÜLLER STOSCH MUSIC DIRECTOR & CONDUCTOR

JOHANNES MÜLLER STOSCH
MUSIC DIRECTOR & CONDUCTOR

The 2024–25 season was filled with inspired performances, adventurous repertoire, and remarkable musical growth—all framed by a bittersweet farewell to the Jack Miller Center for the Performing Arts.

We began the summer with two vibrant concerts. Our Pops at the Pier Broadway program, featuring tenor Doug LaBrecque and soprano Lisa Vroman, was an audience favorite. At our Community Concert HSO welcomed the Brazilian ensemble Choro Das 3. The performance was led by former Youth Orchestra conductor Christopher Fashun, who departed Holland shortly afterward to become Director of Orchestras at Belmont University. Both summer events drew wonderful attendance and energy.

Our fall classical series opened to two sold out houses. Classics 1 featured guest organist Christopher Houlihan, who stepped in at the last minute for Huw Lewis in Barber's Organ Concerto. Alongside a Joseph Marx premiere and works by Florence Price, the HSO performed Gershwin's An American in Paris for the first time in its history. Classics 2 brought pianist Andrew Le back to the stage for Ravel's Piano Concerto. This program also included Michigan premieres of works by Ana Lara and Anna Clyne, and concluded with a luminous first-ever HSO performance of Debussy's La Mer.

The holiday season brought soprano Jenny Reyes to Dimnent

Chapel, where her artistry was met with standing ovations. We are delighted to welcome her back in 2026. Attendance at our holiday concerts has grown steadily each year since COVID. In March, we presented Link Up concerts for nearly 2,000 fourth graders in a packed Miller Concert Hall, and featured violinist Letitia Jap in Saint-Saëns's Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso. A dedicated member of our first violin section, Letitia's solo appearance came just before her summer 2026 move to a tenure-track position at the University of Alabama. We wish her the very best in this exciting next chapter. The program concluded with another first for the HSO—Mendelssohn's Scottish Symphony.

Our April concert proved to be a season highlight and is now available in its entirety on YouTube. The program opened with Sibelius's Finlandia, selected by audience vote, and featured 12-year-old cellist Cameron Renshaw in a moving performance of Bruch's Kol Nidrei. The evening concluded with Rachmaninoff's magnificent Symphony No. 2—a milestone for the orchestra in both scale and technical challenge.

Like the season before, the HSO expanded its repertoire and demonstrated continued artistic growth. Looking ahead, I'm excited to share another year of music-making together, with beloved classics such as Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5, Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, "Eroica", Mahler's Symphony No. 4, and the Michigan premiere of Joseph Marx's Romantic Piano Concerto—sure to become an audience favorite.

My heartfelt thanks to the musicians of the HSO, whose dedication, skill, and artistry make these accomplishments possible.

Musically yours,

Johannes Müller Stosch

A NOTE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RUTH A. CROUCH
BOARD CHAIR

The Holland Symphony has had another fantastic year! On behalf of everyone at HSO, I am delighted to offer heartfelt thanks to all our fellow music-lovers who buy tickets and donate time and resources in support of the symphony. We love nothing better than sharing the special magic of live orchestra.

2024/5 was a year of momentous change for HSO. We've been fortunate to have a talented new CEO to help see us through, and we are all grateful for the ideas and energy Michael Naess has brought to HSO since joining us last June.

Anticipating another very significant change, we are partway through the three-year process of preparing for the departure of our long time Music Director, Johannes Müller Stosch. His final season with HSO will be 2026/7, and that year will feature Classics Series concerts conducted by each of three finalists we have chosen from a large field of highly qualified applicants. Extensive research and interviews were conducted by a committee comprised of board, administration, orchestra and community members.

Also this year, the Holland Symphony announced our relocation to a new home for rehearsals and performances. Due to consistently sold out concerts and capacity constraints at our previous concert venue, the Jack Miller Center for the Performing Arts at Hope College, the decision was made to reach out to the West Ottawa Performing Arts Center. This tremendous community resource was opened this year by West Ottawa Public Schools.

They welcomed Holland Symphony with open arms, and all rehearsals and performances beginning in August 2025 will be in this beautiful hall. With a larger stage and more seating, we anticipate new programming options like large choral works or other collaborations, and we will not have to say "sorry, the concert is sold out"...at least not for a while!

Our first performances in the West Ottawa PAC were a truly memorable christening of our new home - a pair of concerts featuring violin legend Midori. We were thrilled to also offer the community free admission to the Our New Home Celebration concert in August, featuring Peter & the Wolf, as a chance for everyone to explore the new hall and get to know HSO through a light program in a casual setting.

The highlight of the year was of course our inspiring 2024/5 Classics season of gorgeous music and outstanding guest artists. We also offered an energizing school year of Link Up, another fun-filled Pops at the Pier, the annual Music Unites Us free community concert, uplifting performances from our youth orchestras, and an expanded schedule of outreach HSO chamber performances. The summer also included HSO's first ever Summer Orchestra Camp, led by Community Strings conductor John Reikow. This intense week of learning drew participants from throughout the lakeshore/Grand Rapids area, and an expanded camp is in the works for next summer. Community Strings has grown in membership, and built a schedule of outreach concerts, offering a wonderful experience for area amateur musicians.

HSO seeks to engage music lovers of all ages with opportunities to listen, play and learn by offering quality symphonic music concerts, education programs and community collaborations throughout the lakeshore area. We love to share the music!

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

MICHAEL T. NAESS
PRESIDENT & CEO

It gives me great pleasure to present an overview of the impressive new initiatives that the HSO team has been able to achieve during the 2024-2025 season. Building on the outstanding leadership of founder Kay Walvoord and an action-oriented Board of Directors, support for HSO continues to flourish despite political division, the decline in corporate giving, economic uncertainty, and the residual impact of rising inflation. A transformative six-figure estate gift to the endowment from the late David Roossien boosted HSO's long-term financial stability, while increased stewardship, donor cultivation events, a new Gift of Music fundraising and sponsorship brochure, and multiple fundraising mailings to ticket buyers yielded a solid increase in individual donor revenue. More donors, giving bigger gifts!

Much-needed upgrades to the administrative offices included securing an information technology grant and year-long IT support from EnvizionIT, a non-profit software grant from Microsoft365 for office productivity software and digital file sharing and storage, and a partnership with a local grant writing and foundation management fundraising firm River City Grant Writing. In addition to the spectacular programming and exceptional soloists you have come to expect from your HSO, slight adjustments to single and season ticket prices, coupled with new tiered seating zones and passing credit card fees to customers has empowered us to exceed our FY26 subscription goals before the season begins. The addition of 200 seats at our new home at the West Ottawa Performing Arts Center will continue to increase our earned revenue stream, a critical addition to offset the impending loss of Federal and State funding.

Special new performance partnerships with Tulip Time, Freedom Village, Quincy Place, the Holland Farmer's Market, Second Reformed Church, Harderwyk Ministries, Herrick and Saugatuck public libraries, and many other local festivals, senior and community centers, and churches continue to spread the HSO brand and our cultural footprint to new audiences. It is a time of unprecedented growth and innovation beyond the "mom and pop community orchestra" of decades past, made possible only by our passionate, generous, and committed Board, staff, musicians, volunteers, ticket buyers, and donors. Thank you for being a part of it all!
